WHERE YOUR PROPERTY TAXES GO

Hamilton County Auditor Dusty Rhodes is announcing a new Real Estate Tax Information feature on his website, www.hamiltoncountyauditor.org

"This feature will let property owners see exactly where their taxes go by breaking out the dollars and cents to each taxing entity", he said. "There will also be a pie chart on the page," he added.

It will also help all property owners – especially those who do not receive a copy of their tax bill because their taxes are escrowed - to better understand how much of their total taxes funds schools, local governments, and special services.

The Real Estate Tax Information feature can be accessed from the summary page of each property on the Auditor's website by clicking on "Taxes paid" in the right hand column.
